

Calling All Angels
©Jane Siberry

SOPRANOS

Dooo, dooo, dooo, dooo (4 beats each) Do do, do do, do do, do do, (2 beats each)
Do do (2 beats), Dooo (4 beats)
Do do (2 beats), Dooo (4 beats)

a man is placed upon the steps, a baby cries and high above you hear the church bells start to ring--- ooh as the heaviness the heaviness the body settles in somewhere you hear a mother sing then it's one foot then the other as you step out on the road how much weight, how much weight ooooooo

then it's how long, and how far how many times before it's too late?
HOOOOOW long—before it's too late

calling all aa-angels
calling all aa-angels
walk me through this one don't leave me alone
calling all a-ngels
calling all AAA-ngels

we're tryin` and we're hopin` and we're not sure ho-o-o-ow... Hooow....dooo and e-very day you gaze upon the sunset with such love and intensity oh and it's almost as if you could only crack the code then you'd fi-nally understand what this all means oh but if you could do you think oh that you would trade it in --- all the pain and suffering, oooooo ah, but then you'd miss the beauty of the light upon this EA...EARTH---- and the sweetness of the le-e -ea-ving

calling all aa-angels
calling all aa-angels
walk me through this one
don't leave me alone
calling all a-ngels
calling all AAAngels
we're tryin` and we're hopin`
and we're not sure why, oooo calling all angels ooooo lone alone callin` all a-ngels callin` all AA-ngels

we're tryin` and we're hopin`
we're ooo, ooo we're cryin` and we're callin` and we're not- sure- ho-o-o-ow it goes dooo dooo dooo oooo (4 beats)